TE HURIHANGA WAKA

E mate anō tātou ki te whakamaumahara i ō tātou mātau, kia kua e tūngia ngā waka ki te huringahanga waka. Aua take anō rā, ko te haumarutanga a ngā tamariki ka tahi, ko te whakararu i ngā waka e huri haere ana i te hurihanga nei, me te aha, he kūare nā te mea he tohu kei te hurihanga e kī ana:

Me uaua ka kī ake ki ō tātou tamariki, ki ō tātou kaimahi kia whāia ngā ture o te kura, engari tē aro e ngā mātua.

Back to school and we are witnessing more and more parents parking on the round about, especially in the mornings when dropping off their children. Another reminder that this is a safety issue. Secondly, stopping on the round about holds up other moving traffic. Finally, there is a sign posted in the center of the round about in both te reo Māori and in English, therefore stopping on the round about is a choice whānau are deliberately making regardless of the safety issues. Following school rules are expected of students, staff and whānau.
